High Praise For U.S.

CHUNGKING, July 31 (Int'l)-Praising the American Government for its abrogation of the American-Japanese Treaty of Trade, and Commerce of 1911, the Sino-American Cultural Association has sent a telegram to Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of "State, urging States to assume United leadership in affairs in the Fai East in the interest in justice and humanity.

The Association assures Mr. Hull that his move has the support of the 400,000,000 people of China and proves the fallacy of the idea that China alone is resisting aggression.

The telegram is sent in the name of Dr. H. H. Kung, as president of the Association and of Mrs. Henry L. Stimson and Madame Chiang Kai-shek, honorary vice-presidents.

WOODERSON, RIDEOUT IN WHITE CITY MEETING

Many Keen Races Promised In To-day's Programme

The one mile race between Sydney Wooderson and Dennis Pell, of Britain, and Blaine Ridcout, one of the four Americans who bent Wooderson at Princeton, will be the feature of a programme of 14 events at the third annual invitational athletic meeting at the White City to-day.

Rideout is considered an even better runner now than when he beat Wooderson on June 17, and he won the American National championship over 1,500 metres recently, from Fenske, Zamperini, and Cunningham, who finished in that order.

Wooderson has since won the The latter is also a capable English A.A.A. Championship from Dennis Pell in sound time and is back in excellent running form. HONGKONG DAILY PRESS

ANNOUNCES

Cover-Design Contest

For the purpose of securing a suitable design for the cover of its 82nd Anniversary Supplement, the Hongkong Daily Press offers a prize of $50 for the best finished design and $20 for the best idea for such a design. There are also other prizes for the second and third winners.

It does not matter whether you can draw or not. If you can you may submit a finished design; if not you may have an excellent idea as to how such a design should be drawn. Use your spare time to think it out and let us have your idea. We will also give you three months free subscription to the Daily Press if you win, and one month if you don't. So whatever your efforts they will not be in vain.

$50 FOR DESIGN - $20 AN IDEA

Read the following carefully if you please:-

To celebrate the 82nd Anniversary of the Hongkong Daily Press, the oldest morning paper in Hongkong, which was established on October 1, 1857, a special supplement is to be issued. This will be printed on good quality paper and will be profusely illustrated, and it will give the best presentation of Hongkong yet.

As the Hongkong Daily Press's 82nd Anniversary falls ten days before October 10, the Double-Tenth, which is China's National Day, it is proposed to commemorate the occasion in the same special supplement which will, therefore, also give a compre-hensive account of the progress of the Republic of China as made under the guidance of the Kuo Min Tang.

It being the wish of the publishers of the Hongkong Daily Press to emphasize Sino-British friendship as the theme of the special supplement, a cover design clearly presenting this theme is being sought. With a view to securing a suitable design, it is proposed to hold a contest, the rules of which follow:—

RULES

1. The size of the design must be exactly 101 inches wide and 151 inches long, including the title.

2. The design may be done in colours but such colours must not exceed three in number. Gold or silver may, however, be added. 3. The central theme of the design must be "Sino-British Friendship.

4. Designs submitted must reach the Director of the Contest on or before August 81, 1939.

5. Competitors may send in as many designs as they wish but each design must be accompanied by a special form provided by the Hongkong Daily Press or clipped therefrom. The names and addresses of competitors must be written plainly in English on these forms but no name or mark shall be attached to the design

6. Designs acceptable for the contest shall be divided into two classes:--

> . Finished design. b. Design in outline or a description, or idea, of a design.

7. Prizes for the winning designs shall be as follows:-

Winning designs or ideas shall become the property of the Hongkong Daily Press but others may be returned upon application.

9 All winners will be given three months' free subscription for the Hongkong Daily Press. Non-winners shall be given a month's subscription free of charge.

10. Results of the contest will be announced not later than September 10, 1989.

11. The decision of the Contest Judges shall be final.

12. The Hongkong Daily Press reserves the right to use, or not to use the winning design for the cover of the Special: 82nd Anniversary Supplement.

The following form must be filled in the hand-writing of the Competitor, properly signed, and securely attached to the design submitted.

Send all designs to—The Contest Director, Hongkong Daily Press, Marina House, Queen's Road, Central, Hongkong.

Judge Puzzled By Failure To Find Thetis

"Here is a submarine diving at three o'clock on a filae, calm afternoon, and she is not seen again until the following morning, and only then because her stern is sticking out of the water. Mr. Ford On How To Make Money

DON'T SEARCH FOR PROFIT ONLY"

Mr. Henry Ford, who once caused sensation by declaring that 'history is bunk,' recently declared that the "profit motive is bunk." He was speaking at the New York World's Fair, where he had gone to see the arrival of his 27,000,000th car, which is to be placed in the Ford building.

"I have always believed," he said to hundreds of Ford employees gathered at the Fair, "that if you go in for money and nothing but money, you won't get it."

"If you go is sincerely and well prepared to do something useful, you will never lack money to carry it out."

Mr. Ford took the opportunity to modify his famous statement about history. The kind of history represented by the Fair, he declared, was different."

"Here is a real story of mankind," he said. "It makes wars and politics look cheap." Foreign nations, he added, had sent only what they were proud of. "They have not," he commented, "sent their bombs, poison gas, and samples of their concentration camps. They are not really proud

ACTRESS'S" SECRET DRUG SUPPLY

Sent From U.S. In Magazines

Stated to be a film actress who became a drug addict in Holluwood, and had drugs sent to her from America in magazines, Margaret Burton, 28, of Portsea-hall, Connaught-square. W., pleaded guilty at Marylebone to being in unauthorised possession of heroin.

Mr. H. A. K. Morgan, prosecuting, said that since returning to England from Hollywood 12 months ago Miss Burton received by post innocent-looking packets containing magazines. These were delivered monthly and latterly weekly. There was nothing to arouse suspicion. but in each copy of a weekly was a small paper packet containing heroin

Always On Page 10

One evening Det-Sgt. Miller having received certain information, saw the postman deliver one of these packets. He spoke to Miss Burton, and she said: "Here is what you are looking for," and showed him page 10 of the magazine, to which was attached a packet found to contain heroin.

In Miss Burton's flat the sergeant found four other packets containing particles of heroin and a number of American magazines. Then she said to him:

"I will save you a lot of trouble; it always comes in the American weekly." There were five copies of this magazine, and on page 10 of each were the strips of paper by which the packets had been attached.

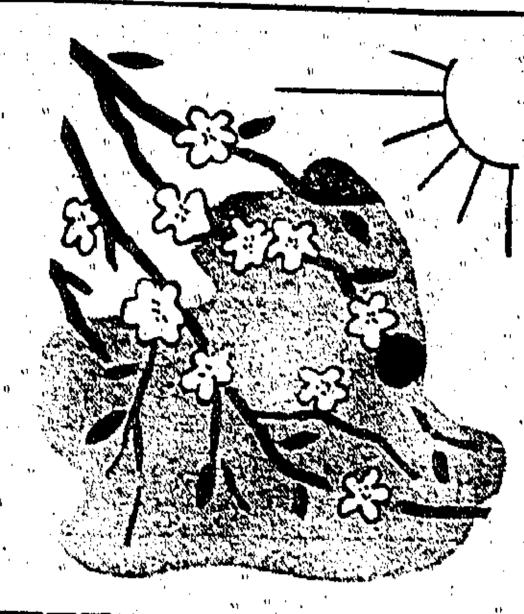

Mr. Morgan mentioned that Miss Burton was fined £5 last September for stealing a fur coat from a West End store.

Mr. Bernard Gilles, defending, said that Miss Burton went to America in 1936. After an operation for appendicitis she had a complete The tuberose plays its part alone nervous breakdown and the doctors prescribed heroin.

TURNING KING'S EVIDENCE, Un Shui-ki, ex-police interpreter previously stationed at Hunghom, levelled accusations against his former superior, Sub-Inspector Joseph Herbert Edward Edwards, in the course of the hearing at the Criminal Sessions yesterday of the case against the latter on a charge of having demanded money with menaces from one Lau Hei-yuk, No. 1 carpenter at Kowloon Dock, and a kai-fong of Hunghom.

Un had originally been charged on the same count, but, as the result of an application by Mr. J. Whyatt, Crown Counsel, made when the case came before His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, yesterday morning, he was granted a pardon subject to his giving truthful evidence.

In the course of his testimony, Un alleged that, though it was he who had done the talking at the conversation when money had been demanded from Lau, he had been acting with, and on the authorisation of Edwards.

"GUERILLA - MAGISTRATES:" STORY OF A DARING YOUNG LEADER

The wartime duties of a Chinese magistrate are unusually onerous. Besides being an efficient administrator, he has to be a good guerilla leader as well. Any sudden turn in the military situation may place him at the head of local self-defence units to fight the Japanese invaders. In such a case, any previous military training is very useful to him.

So many old, scholarly magistrates have been largely replaced by a rising group of what may be called "guerillamagistrates." The latter generally are young, robust and adventure.

Daring Young Man

troops had to withdraw into the youthful magistrate remained in the county.

The story of his struggle, as he tells it, is duplicated by various was zones in China.

Humble Beginning.

"The guerilla units under my on the morning of July 30. command had a humble beginning, there being some 60 of us altogether. Rightly many ques-snatched the money from her tioned the wisdom of my staying hand and run away. He was arbehind after the withdrawal of the main body of our troops. But decided to stick it out. I left the county seat for the country, where H. M. S. Medway, submarine I lost no time in whipping into determined to defend their villages and homesteads.

> "The people in countryside were really lovable. Surreptitiously they smuggled food for my guerilla bands through Japanese lines. It was bitterly cold in Suiyuan last winter. Most of my men had no warm clothing, I sent for the elders in the numerous rural towns and villages within my jurisdiction. After I had explained my problem to them, I added that I would not send any men to collect any fund that was to be raised.

Japanese Plan Fails "The Japanese in the county seat heard I had summoned the town and village elders. They announced that on a certain day they would hand out relief money and table salt to the people. the 70 elders in the county, th Japanese only got hold four. The others refused to enter the city The Hongkong Emergency Re- despite the tempting offer. Later the Japanese again tried to get the elders together, but failed.

"Members in my guerilla bands are all law-abiding peasants. To train them and lead them to battle is easier said than done. The only tangible form of authority I possess is my official seal. Yet they obey my orders. In believen the respect I command from my followers comes from my being willing to share their hardships and privations.

No Complaints "Everywhere my men go, they have sown no seeds for complaint. The people willingly provide us with millet and other food supplies. Many have told me that they preferred to give the food to us rather than being robbed by the Japanese. Anyone who doubts the existence of national consciousness in the hearts of our rustic folk will change his opinion the moment he comes into contact with such simple-minded but patriotic people in the country.

"I have discovered that a leader. in order to retain his following, must lead. He must always be the first one to charge into the enemy line and the last one to retreat Furthermore, Ke must have no love of money or profit. With these three qualifications, a properly trained man can take any number of guerillas into battle. Although I am magistrate and at the same time their commander. I must sometimes do

An Array Of 123 Ships

At the royal review there will be an array of 123 ships, including three battleships, and four cruiser squadrons, five destroyer flotillas, anti-aircraft carriers, submarines, escort and patrol vessels not manned by the Reservists.

This will be the first time in fifteen years that the Reserve Fleet with its Commander, Vice - Admiral Sir Max Horton on board the flagship Effingham, will have been brought out in full strength.

The Reserve Fleet vessels have been considerably modernized in the past three years and when they are seen by the King they will be ready for action.

After the inspection, the vessels will proceed to Portland, Rosyth and Invergordon to carry out exercises during August and September.

HOME FLEET ALREADY ON THE MOVE

The Home Fleet has already begun to move to Rosyth and Invergordon where the biggest fleet seen in northern waters will be stationed.

In the meanwhile, 135,000 Territorials will this week engage in large-scale manoeuvres all over England; another long-distance mass flight by Royal Air Force bombers is planned in the near future; and on the night of August 9 a great Black-Out in London and 28 Southern Counties in England will give the civil desence its biggest test up to date.

SERIOUS FLOOD SITUATION

SOVIET EXPORT CREDIT LOAN "LIKELY" ...

CHUNGKING, July 31 (Reuter)-Questioned in regard to the reports circulating in Shanghai that Russia is granting China an export credit of 750,000,000 gold roubles. Chinese official circles refuse to offer any comment.

They decline either to confirm or deny the reports.

Usually well-informed circles declare that "there is something in the wind" and that such a credit is "likely."

TO-DAY'S COMMONS DEBATE

WHOLE SCOPE OF INTERNATIONAL SITUATION

LONDON, July 31 (T/Ocean) For the first time in two months the House of Commons will on Monday debate on the entire international situation, not only on partial matters. Such a general debate is undoubtedly believed to be necessary by the Government in view of the two months recess of the House. beginning on August 4. Reports in the early Monday morning papers indicate that the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, will deal in detail with all pending foreign political main problems, in particular with the Moscow Peace conversations, the situation in Danzig and German-Polish relations, and the Anglo-Japanese conversations in Tokyo. A report from Moscow from the British Ambassador, Sir William Seeds, on the Soviet-Russian reaction to proposal of opening of Three-Partite Staff conversations is expected to be received on Monday.

London political circles firmly hope that the Kremlin agrees in principle to the opening of conversations on a Military Conven-

BRITISH OPPOSITION TO JAPAN'S DEMAND

Silver Held By Chinese Banks In Concession

TOKYO, July 31 (Reuter)—The Anglo-Japanese conference will be resuming here to-day when the Sub-Committee of Four will consider Japan's demand that Britain should recognize the currency of the Federal Reserve Bank and hand over the silver held by Chinese banks in the British Concession at Tientsin.

According to the Japanese not be able to meet the Japanese newspapers, the British delegation opposes handing over the silver on the ground that it is an entirely different matter from the maintenance of peace and order in Tientsin.

The Japanese, on the other hand, are stated to have contended that the question of maintaining peace and order cannot be esettled until the question of this silver has been disposed of.

Police Chief Arrives TOKYO, July 31 (T/Ocean)-The British Chief of Police in Tientsin Mr. Dennis, arrived here yesterday at the wish of the British Ambassador: Sir Robert Craigle, to be in readiness to appear as an expert on the police questions in Tientsin should the Japanese attack these problems separately as the British authorities expected. MEETING CANCELLED A later message stated that the meeting of the Anglo-Japanese Sub-Committee fixed for this morning was cancelled because it was reported that the Japanese wise have been delayed by fears of delegates were not yet ready.

BRITAIN STAND FIRM

LONDON, July 31 (Reuter)— "The Times" diplomatic correspondent, referring to the new Japdemands, says that the British Government entered the negotiations on the understanding that they were solely concerned with the Tientsin blockade and its associated problems.

Mr. Chamberlain declared at the beginning of the talksand he is likely to repeat it to-day-that Great Britain Is not going to reverse her foreign policy at the behest of another power. More than that Great Britain is going to cease from the policy which she has set herself.

Wider Demands To accede to the wider Japanese demands would mean the dropping of all support for Chinese currency, on which Chinese export trade depends, and affecting many other countries too-Great Britain. America, France and others.

Mr. Chamberlain may be expected to-day to clear away many doubts and misunderstandings that have arisen out of the Anglo-Japanese formula. Great Britain will stand loyally by it as a formula that established the facts to be faced in North China during a difficult and probably transitional time.

Given the same loyalty by the Japanese commanders, it could be the basis of a modus vivendi.

A REAL ULTIMATUM TO JAPAN

SIGNOR GAYDA ON U.S. TREATY DENUNCIATION

Mr. Hull's Statement Disbelieved

ROME, JULY 31 (REUTER) THE DENUNCIATION OF THE JAPANESE - AMERICAN COMMERCIAL TREATY IS DESCRIBED AS A REAL ULTI-MATUM TO JAPAN BY SIG-NOR GAYDA, WRITING IN THE "VOCE DITALIA."

He professes to be convinced that the denunciation is the result of a manoeuvre between London and Washington with the object of forcing Janan to modify her attitude towards Britain.

Help For Britain

Signor Gayda writes: 'Britain is relying on help from President Roosevelt to redress the situation in the Far East."

Signor Gayda disbelieves Mr Cordell Hull's statement that the denunciation was spontaneous and asserts that it was already being considered" at the time of the negotiations for an Anglo-American Commercial Treaty. Parallel Action

The market opened 3/16 of a cent higher for all deliveries as compared with Friday's closing quotations.

Substantial buying orders received by overnight cables from London and New York were responsible for the steadiness displayed in Singapore early in the morning. There were also fair enquiries for trade and speculative accounts in evidence.

After fair volume of business having been transacted on basis of quoted rates the market became quiet and towards the close of the session prices slightly declined by 1/16 to 1/8 cent for all deliveries. Closing tone was dull.

Apprehensions of the 5 per cent. extra-release for July-September having an adverse influence on the probable trend of the market in the immediate future, seem to have been largely offset by further reports of steadily increasing absorption as is evidenced by continually declining stocks both in London and New York, thus stimulating sentiment. In view of this fact it is believed that Rubber is again within buying range.

Market closed. The average forecast of last week's stocks of rubber in London and Liverpool shows a decrease of 1,050 tons.

NEW YORK COTTON

Trading in this market was particularly active. Prices moved up slightly on new buying and covering. Crop advices indicate good condition.

CHICAGO WHEAT

Firmness of cash reports and unfavourable weather advanced prices. The excessive heat in Canada is still influencing the market, but an improvement is expected shortly.
